

The NoNahme Clan of the Northern California Flute Circle presents their Spring Flute Festival

EXPERIENCE THE BEAUTY OF THE NATIVE AMERICAN FLUTE

THE MYSTERY OF THE
ABORIGINAL DIDGERIDOO

THE POWER OF THE DRUM

APRIL 21, 2007

Georgetown School Nature Area and Amphitheater in Georgetown, CA

Sponsored in part by
KFOK COMMUNITY RADIO

RAIN OR SHINE EVENT FREE TO THE PUBLIC FROM 8AM – 6PM

EVENT WILL BE HELD IN THE GEORGETOWN SCHOOL GYM IN THE CASE OF RAIN

“SPIRIT OF THE FLUTE” KFOK BENEFIT CONCERT

At the Georgetown IOOF Hall starting at 7:00 PM

- ◆ Enjoy workshops on how to play and make the Native American Flute
- ◆ Learn how to play the Aboriginal Didgeridoo of Australia
- ◆ Participate in Drum Circles and tour the Nature Area
- ◆ Browse through a marketplace featuring flute makers and local arts & crafts
- ◆ See and hear performances and demonstrations at the amphitheatre by flute players from all over Northern California
- ◆ Advanced workshops by award winning artists will be available for a fee
- ◆ Spectacular concert event featuring world renown flute and didgeridoo players

www.naflute.com

For information about the event, workshops, concert tickets, or vendor applications for food or crafts contact...

Marion Cole: 530-621-3227 or Mignon Geli: 530-333-0299

EVENTS ON SCHOOL PROPERTY ARE REQUIRED TO BE TOBACCO, ALCOHOL AND DRUG FREE